

Try to complete the following given shapes.

Try to create various geometrical shapes of your own using all the given pieces.

4 & UP

#1043

TANGRAM

❑ A complete set of Tangram consists of seven pieces:

- ◆ a small square
- ◆ two large congruent triangles
- ◆ a parallelogram
- ◆ two small congruent triangles
- ◆ a medium-size triangle

❑ Tangram, a seven-piece puzzle

- ◆ Used to classify the geo shapes and find their relationship
- ◆ To develop problem solving by matching
- ◆ To create endless play possibilities.

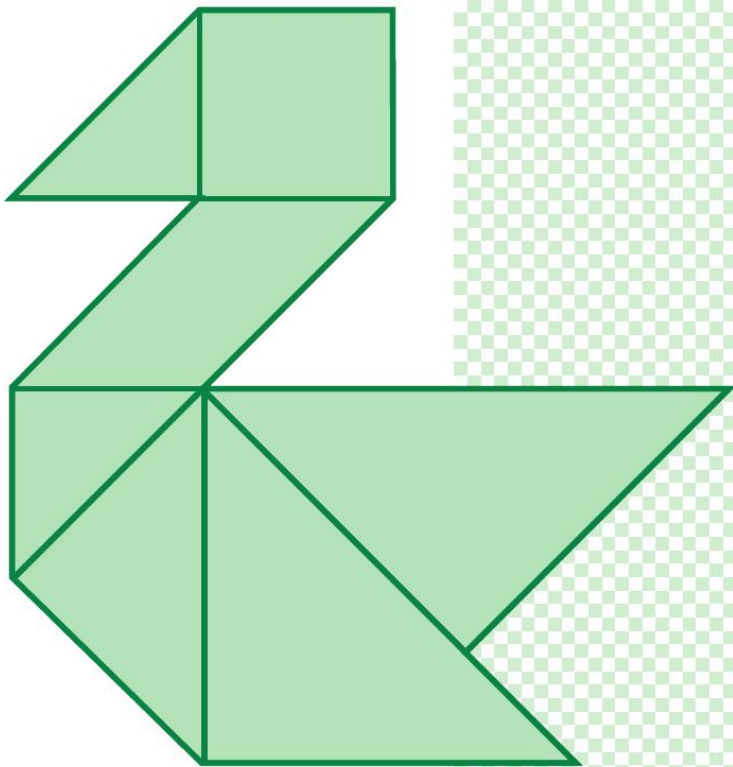

HISTORY

Tangram is an ancient Chinese puzzle that adults and children still use today. The roots of the word Tangram have many different explanations. Some people believe that it came from the Tanka people. The Tanka were river people of China who were great traders. Later, Tangram became very popular in the 19th century in Europe and America.

#1043

There are several different ways to play with Tangram

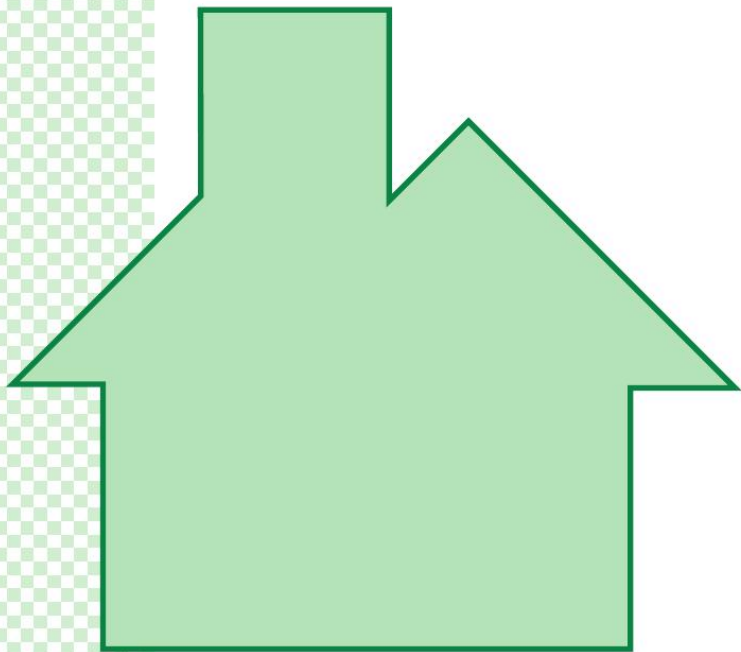

eg. To build the given shapes as in the instruction manual.
Please use the 7 pieces to make the figure below:

Try to solve this puzzle without any help! You can make it!

Challenge!

Can you use Tangram to build the following house?

Time yourself and challenge your friends to beat your time.
See if you can find more than one solution to any given puzzle.